HACKNEY CARRIAGES IN EDINBURGH.

FARES BY DISTANCE.

61. The distance to which any hackney carriage may be driven under these bye-laws shall be five miles from the Cross of Edinburgh; and the driver of a hackney carriage shall not at any time convey more than five adults in or on such carriage.

(1) The fares for a hackney carriage not fitted with a taximeter hired from a theatre or other place of public resort shall be reckoned as from the nearest stance, when the same is within half a mile, otherwise the fare shall be computed according to No. 5 of this bye-law. The charges specified shall include going from the stance or stable to take up the party hiring at any point within half a mile therefrom, and waiting for ten minutes. Where the distance driven for taking up shall exceed half a mile from the stance or stable whence the carriage is taken, a charge of sixpence for every mile or part thereof shall be allowed after the free half mile; and if the carriage be detained before starting for more than ten minutes, a charge for waiting at the rate of 6d. for each quarter of an hour or part thereof after the expiry of the ten minutes shall be allowed.

(2) There shall be no charge for waiting while a hackney carriage not fitted with a taximeter is on the way to a destination unless the waiting before starting and the waiting by the way exceeds in all ten minutes; and when such waiting exceeds ten minutes it shall be charged for in terms of No. 1 of this bye-law. There shall be no charge for a short deviation from the direct route.

(3) The fare to any place not mentioned in the Table shall be the same as to any place mentioned therein which is in the immediate vicinity.

(4) In the event of any new stance being appointed during the currency of these regulations, the fares from said new stance shall be the same as from the stance nearest to it, when the same is within half a mile.

(5) When the fare of any particular place not mentioned cannot be ascertained by reference to a place in the immediate vicinity, the fare for any distance not exceeding a mile and a quarter shall be as follows, viz. :—

For any number of passengers not exceeding four	1s. 0d.
For five passengers	1s. 6d.
And for every additional half mile or part thereof	6d.

(6) When the party returns half fare only shall be payable, and the carriage shall wait ten minutes without any charge for waiting; if the carriage be detained longer, a charge shall be allowed for waiting, at the rate of 6d. for every quarter of an hour or part thereof, commencing when the free waiting expires.

(7) When a hackney carriage is called but not used, a charge of 6d. shall be allowed, if the place to which it is called be under half a mile from the stance or stable, and 1s. if beyond that distance. Waiting shall be charged for as under No. 1 of this bye-law.

FARES BY TIME.

62. (1) The hirer may engage a hackney carriage not fitted with a taximeter by time when the same is to be used within the municipal bounds, for SHOPPING, MAKING CALLS, and the like, where the driving is not continuous, and does not exceed two-thirds of the time during which the carriage may be engaged. The charge in such a case shall be 2s. 6d. for the first hour or part thereof for any number of passengers not exceeding four, and 10d. for every additional twenty minutes or part thereof. When five passengers are driven 6d. extra shall be allowed on the total fare. When the carriage is discharged at a greater distance than a mile from the point where the same was engaged, a charge shall be allowed for returning thereto at the rate of half the distance fare.

(2) For an Airing into the country within eight miles from the Cross of Edinburgh, and returning, and for continuous driving within the municipal bounds, in a hackney carriage not fitted with a taximeter, the rate shall be 4s. for any period of time not exceeding one hour and twenty minutes, and 1s. for every additional twenty minutes or part thereof. Unless the hirer wishes a slower pace, the rate of driving when a carriage is engaged by time shall be at least six miles an hour; and in the event of the driving being at a slower pace than six miles an hour, contrary to the wish of the hirer, it shall be optional for the hirer to pay the fare at the rate of 4s. for every eight miles so travelled. The above rate is for four passengers. When five passengers are driven 6d. extra shall be added to the total fare.

(3) Notice of the intention to pay by time must be given by the hirer at the commencement of the engagement, otherwise the fare may be charged by distance. The charges under Sections 1 and 2 of this bye-law shall include going from the stance or stable to take up the party hiring from any point within half a mile therefrom, and where a greater distance is driven for taking up, a charge of 6d. for every mile or part thereof after the free half mile shall be allowed.

DOUBLE FARE.

63. Between 12 o'clock midnight and 7 o'clock in the morning double fare shall be allowed in the case of fares either by distance or by time, but this shall not apply to the charge for luggage.

There shall be no additional charge when two horses are used by the owner without being required to do so; but if two horses be used at the request of a hirer, the charge shall be fare and a half.

LUGGAGE.

64. RATES OF POSTAGE AND CONDITIONS OF TRANSMISSION.

INLAND LETTERS.

The prepaid rates of postage are as follows, viz.:

For a letter not exceeding 1 oz.	1d.
Exceeding 1 oz., but not exceeding 2 oz.	2d.
For every additional 2 oz.	½d.

A letter posted unpaid is chargeable on delivery with double postage; and if insufficiently prepaid, with double the deficiency.

Every letter should bear the name and address of the sender in order to ensure its return in case of non-delivery.

No letter may exceed 2 feet in length, 1 foot in width, or 1 foot in depth, unless it be sent to or from a Government office.

POST CARDS.

Official post cards impressed with a halfpenny stamp, or reply cards impressed with a halfpenny stamp on each portion, can be bought at every Post Office.

Nothing whatever may be attached except adhesive stamps in payment of additional postage or stamp duty, and a gummed label not exceeding 2 inches long and ½ inch broad, bearing the name and address at which the card is to be delivered, and a similar label bearing the name and address of the sender; engravings, illustrations, drawings, and photographs, on very thin paper and completely adherent to the card. A post card may not be folded, nor may it be cut or altered in such a way as to reduce the size below 4 by 2½ inches, nor may it be fastened against inspection, or enclosed in a cover of any kind. An inland post card is transmissible for abroad if the additional postage is made by postage stamps.

Cards used as post cards must be made of ordinary cardboard, not thicker than the material used for the thickest official post card, and not thinner than the material used for the thinnest. They may not exceed 5½ in. in length by 3½ in. in width, or less than 4 in. in length by 2½ in. in width.

If any of these rules be infringed, the card ceases to be a post card, and is treated as a letter, and liable to the usual charges on delivery.

Inland.—Post cards are sold at the rate of (thin, 5½ × 3½ in.; thick, 4½ × 3½ in.) thin ½d. each, packets of 12, 6d.; thick ¾d. each, 5½d. for 10; parcels of 110 stout cards, 5s.; 240 thin cards, 10s. Reply post cards are sold at the following prices:—1½d. each, 10 for 11d.; thin, 1d. each, 12 for 1s.

Foreign.—Official post cards, single and reply, are transmissible to all parts of the world. Single cards are issued with impressed stamps of a 1d., and reply cards bearing stamps of the value of 1d. on each half. Inland post cards are also transmissible abroad if the additional postage required is supplied by means of postage stamps affixed to the cards on the address side. Unpaid post cards from places abroad are charged 2d. Partially paid cards are charged double the deficient postage within a limit of 2d.

INLAND NEWSPAPERS.

This post is available for newspapers registered at the G.P.O., including any supplements thereof. Limit of size, 2 feet in length, 1 foot in width or depth, $\frac{3}{4}$ d. for every 6 oz.

No writing or printing is permitted, other than the words 'with compliments,' name and address of sender, request for return if undelivered, and a reference to a page.

Newspapers not registered as such at G.P.O., and Christmas or special issues of registered newspapers, are treated as book packets. Limit of weight, 2 lbs.

COLONIAL & FOREIGN LETTERS.

The rate of postage to be prepaid in the United Kingdom on letters for all Foreign Countries (except Egypt, the United States of America, and the places in China and Morocco where there are British Post Office Agencies) is 2 $\frac{1}{2}$ d. per ounce, and 1 $\frac{1}{2}$ d. for each succeeding ounce or fraction thereof; but to British Possessions generally (including Egypt, the United States of America, and the places in China and Morocco where there are British Post Office Agencies) the letter rate is 1d. per ounce. Dutiable articles, if sent by letter post, may be subjected to fine or confiscated if the place of destination so prescribes.

Letters posted unpaid, or paid only in part, to any country where prepayment is compulsory, are returned to the writers. Letters so posted for other countries are forwarded, but are charged on delivery with double the deficiency.

Unpaid and insufficiently prepaid letters from Egypt, the United States of America, and the British Agencies to which penny postage applies are charged double the deficient postage, but the surcharge can in no case exceed 2d. per half ounce. Unpaid and insufficiently prepaid letters from all other places are charged double the deficient postage within a limit of 5d. per half ounce.

Letters not specially directed by a particular route are, as a rule, forwarded by the first mail despatched.

Letters for Russia should have the name of the town and province added in English or French.

No letter may exceed 2 feet in length by 1 foot in breadth or depth.

BOOK PACKETS.

The prepaid rate is—Not exceeding 2 oz. in weight, $\frac{3}{4}$ d.; every additional 2 oz., or fraction of 2 oz., $\frac{3}{4}$ d. Halfpenny packets if posted unpaid are chargeable with double postage.

The expression 'Book Packet' means a packet not exceeding 5 lbs. in weight, which consists of or contains one or more of the following articles or documents.

By way of exception the benefit of this post is extended to the documents specified below, although they may contain matter in the nature of a letter, provided they respectively conform to the following conditions:—

By 'printing' is meant any species of type-printing easy to recognise, or any mechanical process ordinarily used to produce a number of identical copies of written matter, and easy to recognise, such as lithography and hand stamping.

Documents wholly or partly printed in imitation

* A printed form within the meaning of the regulations is one bearing printed matter clearly indicating the purpose for which the form is intended to be used. The form must be appropriate, e.g. an ordinary memorandum form may not be used.

of typewriting, or reproduced from a type-written original by a mechanical process ordinarily used to produce a number of identical copies, are not admissible by the halfpenny post unless—

- (a) They are handed in at a Head or Branch Post Office. (Such documents are also accepted provisionally at Town Sub-offices and at certain of the more important Rural Sub-offices, subject to their being found to be in order when examined at the Head office, to which they will be sent);
- (b) Special attention is drawn to the fact that they are printed or reproduced in type-written characters;
- (c) At least twenty copies are posted at the same time.

'Writing' includes type-writing and any mechanical or other process ordinarily used to produce a single document.

There may also be transmitted by the halfpenny packet post—

- (1) Sketches, drawings, paintings, photographs, engravings, maps, plans, and charts on paper or some substance ordinarily used for the purpose, provided it be not a brittle or exceptionally fragile substance.
- (2) The binding or mounting of any article sent by the halfpenny packet post, provided it be of a kind ordinarily used for the purpose, be not made of glass or any brittle or exceptionally fragile substance, and be transmitted in the same packet with the article in respect of which it is used.
- (3) Anything necessary or convenient for the safe transmission by post of any of the above-mentioned articles.

No other article or document can be sent by the halfpenny packet post, and in particular the post cannot be used for goods, samples, or patterns unless they come within the foregoing descriptions.

COLONIAL AND FOREIGN PRINTED AND COMMERCIAL PAPERS.

(a) Commercial Papers, under which are comprised all papers or documents written or drawn wholly or partly by hand (except letters or communications in the nature of letters, or other papers or documents having the character of an actual and personal correspondence), documents of legal procedure, deeds drawn up by public functionaries, copies of or extracts from deeds under private seal (and whether written or printed on stamped or unstamped paper), way bills, bills of lading, invoices, and other documents of a mercantile character, documents of insurance and other public companies, all kinds of manuscript music, the manuscript of books and other literary works, letters and post cards of old date, which have already served their original purpose, and pupils' exercises either in original or with corrections, but without any comment on the work, and other papers of a similar description.

The products of the copying press and typewriter are not admitted at the rate for printed papers; nor as a rule are printed papers, the text of which has been modified after printing either by hand or mechanical process, or marked so as to constitute a conventional language.

The rate of postage to be prepaid in the United Kingdom on printed papers for all places abroad is $\frac{1}{2}$ d. per 2 oz. The postage on commercial papers is $\frac{1}{2}$ d. for the first 10 oz., and $\frac{1}{2}$ d. per 2 oz. thereafter.

If not fully prepaid, double the deficiency will be charged on delivery; if unpaid, they will be stopped.

Printed papers from places abroad, of which the postage is insufficiently prepaid, will be charged on delivery with double the deficient postage within a limit of a 1d. per 2 oz.; and on insufficiently paid commercial papers the charge to be made will not exceed 5d. up to 10 oz., and 1d. per 2 oz. for heavier weights.

COLONIAL AND FOREIGN SAMPLE POST.

The use of the Sample Post to the colonies and foreign countries generally is restricted to bona fide trade samples of merchandise. Packets containing goods sent for sale, or in execution of an order (however small the quantity may be), or any articles sent by one private individual to another which are not actually trade samples or scientific specimens, cannot be forwarded by Sample Post.

The postage to be prepaid in the United Kingdom is 1d. for the first 4 oz., and $\frac{1}{2}$ d. per 2 oz. thereafter. Insufficiently paid packets are forwarded to places abroad, but are charged on delivery with double the deficiency. If unpaid, they will be stopped. Insufficiently paid sample packets from places abroad will be charged double the deficient postage within a limit of 2d. up to 4 oz., and of 1d. per 2 oz. for heavier weights.

Samples, when practicable, must be sent in covers open at the ends, and in such a manner as to be easy of examination. But samples of seeds, drugs, and suchlike articles, which cannot be sent in covers of this kind, may be posted enclosed in boxes or in bags, fastened in such a manner that they may be readily opened.

Such articles as scissors, knives, razors, forks, steel pens, nails, keys, watch machinery, metal tubing, pieces of metal or ore, may be sent, provided that they are bona fide samples without saleable value, and are packed and guarded so as to afford complete protection to the contents of the mail bags and the officers of the Post Office, while at the same time they may be easily examined. Packets containing liquids, glass, greasy substances, colouring powders, and live bees can be sent by sample post from the United Kingdom to countries in the Postal Union. Deleterious liquids or substances may be sent abroad for medical examination or analysis by sample post only. Explosives are absolutely prohibited.

A packet or samples sent to any British Colony or Possession or non-Union country, must not exceed $24 \times 12 \times 12$ in., but to any foreign place comprised in the Postal Union a packet must not exceed $12 \times 8 \times 4$ in., unless it be in the form of a roll, in which case the limit of size is 12×6 in.

The limit of weight for packets of samples for British Colonies or Possessions, or for non-Union countries, is, as a rule, 5 lb., but for foreign countries in the Postal Union the limit is 12 oz.

INLAND PARCEL POST.

In order that a packet may go by Parcel Post, it must be tendered for transmission as a parcel, and should bear the words 'Parcel Post' clearly written in the left-hand top corner. It is also desirable that a parcel should bear the name and address of the sender on the cover, but not in such a position as to be mistaken for the address of the parcel. The parcel should not be left until the weight, size, and postage have been tested by the officer who accepts it. The stamps should be affixed by the sender.

The size allowed for an Inland Postal Parcel is—Greatest length, 3 ft. 6 in.
Greatest length and girth combined, 6 ft. 0 in.

For example:—A parcel measuring 3 ft. 6 in. in its longest dimension, may measure as much as 2 ft. 6 in. in girth, or, if shorter, may be thicker.

The rates of postage are—

No exceeding 1 lb. in weight,	4d.
Exceeding 1 lb. and not exceeding 2 lbs.,	5d.
" 2 lbs. " " "	6d.
" 3 " " "	7d.
" 5 " " "	8d.
" 7 " " "	9d.
" 8 " " "	10d.
" 9 " " "	11d.
" 10 " " "	1s.

No parcel may exceed 11 lbs. in weight.

A Customs declaration must be made in the case of parcels for the Channel Islands.

To offices where letters may be addressed 'to be called for,' parcels may also be so addressed. Such parcels are kept for three weeks. at the end of which period, if not called for, they are returned to the sender.

Inland Parcels.—For a parcel which is not registered the Postmaster-General will accept liability up to £2, without payment of any fee, provided that the parcel is posted in the manner prescribed for the posting of parcels by the regulations for the time being, and a certificate of posting is obtained from the officer receiving the parcel, and produced when required. The certificate must be filled up by the sender and handed to the officer, who will sign and return it to him. The parcel must be packed and enclosed in a reasonably strong case, wrapper, or cover.

COLONIAL AND FOREIGN PARCEL POST.

The rules as to prepayment, method of address, and posting are the same as with inland parcels.

Customs Declaration and Duties.—Parcels are liable to Customs regulations and duties, and the sender of a parcel is required to make a Customs declaration furnishing—upon a special form provided for the purpose—an accurate statement of the contents and value and other particulars.

Delivery of Parcels.—In many Colonies and foreign countries parcels are not, like letters, delivered at the residences of the addressees. Notice of the arrival of a parcel is sent to the addressee, who must then claim the parcel at the Post Office, Railway Station, or Custom House where it is lying.

In Belgium, France, and Spain parcels are delivered by the Railway Companies, and not by the Post Office; and parcels intended to be called for should not be addressed to a Poste Restante in those countries, but to a Railway Station (en gare).

Insurance of Colonial Parcels.—Parcels to or from certain British Colonies and Possessions are accepted for insurance. The names of the places may be learned at any Post Office.

The fee for insurance, including registration, is 4d. for £12, up to a limit of 5s. 10d. for £400; and for the United States 6d. for £12, up to a limit of 5s. for £120. Compensation up to £1 is also given on uninsured parcels to or from Egypt,

India, and the smaller colonies with the larger foreign countries (except China and Russia), including the semi-official U.S.A. service.

Re-direction and Return of Parcels.—Parcels arriving in this country and re-directed from one address to another in the United Kingdom are liable to additional postage at the Inland Rate for each re-direction, except where the original and the second address are both within the delivery of the same post office.

If a parcel cannot be delivered as addressed, or is refused, the sender, if his address be given on the parcel or on the forms which accompany the parcel, is communicated with by the Post Office as to the manner in which the parcel shall be disposed of.

If returned or re-directed from one country to another, the parcel will be charged a full rate of postage.

A parcel should be properly packed and sealed by the sender, so that it cannot be opened without breaking the seal.

EXPRESS DELIVERY OF LETTERS AND PARCELS.

The following services are provided by the Post Office:—

Express throughout (Local Service).

The charge is 8d. for every mile or part of a mile from the Office of delivery to the address. On packets weighing more than 1 lb. a weight fee of 3d. is charged, together with a further fixed charge of 1d. for each article beyond one. If the sender desires, a cab or other special conveyance may be used throughout, the actual fare or cost of the conveyance must be paid in addition to the mileage fee. The weight fee is not charged in such a case.

All charges must be prepaid in postage stamps, to be affixed to a form provided by the Post Office, and should be handed in over the counter, or to an officer authorised to receive it. In no case may it be placed in a letter box. The words 'Express Delivery' must be boldly and legibly written on the cover, and in the case of a letter the cover must be marked with a broad perpendicular line from top to bottom both on front and back.

The addressees of letters and parcels not marked for Express Delivery may have them delivered by special messenger in advance of the ordinary delivery by postman, on making application in proper time on a form provided for the purpose and prepaying the usual express fee of 3d. per mile on the first packet and a further fixed charge of 1d. for every additional ten or less number of packets.

Local Service.—At the General Post Office, and at the undermentioned Branch and Sub-Offices, letters, parcels, etc., are accepted for immediate delivery by Express Messenger in any part of Edinburgh and Leith or suburbs, see page 1109.

From the General Post Office, Edinburgh, delivery is effected at all hours day and night, except between 11.30 p.m. on Saturdays and midnight on Sundays. From 10 p.m. till 7 a.m. on week days letters should be handed in at the North Bridge entrance.

Letters, etc., for Express Delivery from the General Post Office, may also be handed in at any of the other Local Offices, but the delivery will be less expeditious in these cases, inasmuch as the articles have first to be conveyed by ordinary collection to the G.P.O., from which they are expressed to destination. Thus an express letter or parcel, handed in at Fountain-bridge Post Office before 9.50 a.m. will reach the G.P.O. at 10.30 a.m., and delivery by Express Messenger will immediately follow.

The Express Service may also be used for obtaining letters in advance of the ordinary deliveries by Postmen.

Single Letters conveyed by Railway.—Railway letters not exceeding 1 oz. in weight, for transmission by train or steamship, may be handed in to any post office from which express delivery is made, for immediate conveyance to the railway stations, at the above rates.

CONVEYANCE OF SINGLE POST LETTER BY RAILWAY.

Certain Railway Companies have entered into agreement with the Postmaster-General to accept and convey by the next available train or steam-boat single inland post letters, not exceeding 1 oz. in weight, either to be called for at the station of address or to be transferred there to the nearest post office letter box for delivery by postman. The letter must be taken to the parcel booking office, and when that office is shut to the passenger booking office. The charge for such a letter is 3d.—postage stamp 1d., and 2d. in cash to the Railway Company.

SPECIAL CONDITIONS OF TRANSMISSION.

ADDRESSES AND PETITIONS TO THE KING AND PARLIAMENT.

Petitions and addresses to the King, forwarded direct or through a member of either House of Parliament, are exempt from postage. Petitions to members of either House so addressed are also exempt, provided they do not exceed 2 lbs. in weight, and, sent without covers, or in covers open at the ends. This exemption applies only to an original signed petition or address, and not to any copy thereof.

PARLIAMENTARY PROCEEDINGS.

Printed votes or proceedings of the Imperial Parliament, sent in open covers, having the words 'Parliamentary Proceedings' written or printed thereon, are subject to no limits of size and weight, and are liable only to a rate of $\frac{1}{2}$ d. for every 2 oz., whether prepaid or not.

PARLIAMENTARY AND MUNICIPAL REGISTRATION NOTICES, JURY SUMMONSES.

Particulars as to the conditions under which these documents may be served by post may be obtained from the Secretary, General Post Office, or from the Postmaster at any Head Post Office.

NON-COMMISSIONED OFFICERS, SOLDIERS AND SEAMEN IN H.M. SERVICE.

Letters, etc., for the officers and crew of H.M. Ships are, as a rule, forwarded in accordance with lists of addresses furnished from time to time by the Admiralty, and should be addressed H.M.S. (name of ship), c/o G.P.O., London. E.C.

The postage payable on letters addressed to H.M. ships abroad is 1d. per oz., and the same postage is payable in British stamps on letters sent in the bags made up on board H.M. ships.

Letters, etc., for commissioned officers in the army or navy are liable to the same rates of postage as those for the general public.

Non-commissioned officers, schoolmasters, school-mistresses, private soldiers, seamen, writers in H.M. Navy, whether serving on sea or land, at home or abroad, the Cape Mounted Rifles, and enrolled pensioners in Canada, can send and receive prepaid letters, not exceeding half an ounce, for a postage of 1d.

The name of the soldier or seaman, with his class or description, must appear in the direction, and the officer having the command must sign his name, and specify the ship or regiment, corps or detachment, to which the soldier or seaman belongs, the name of the ship or regiment being entered in full. The foregoing particulars must be given in one of the following forms:—

From A. B., Sergeant, etc., — Regt. _____
(Here the direction of the letter to be inserted.)
C. D., Colonel (or other Commanding Officer), — Regt. _____

To A. B.,
Private (or Sergeant, Corporal, etc.) — Regt. _____
(Here the direction to be finished.)

If the letter be posted in the United Kingdom, unpaid or insufficiently prepaid, or if the class or description of the soldier or seaman be not given it will be returned to the writer for payment of the postage.

REGULATIONS AS TO PREPAYMENT, REGISTRATION, ETC.

MODES OF PREPAYMENT.

Inland letters, newspapers, and book packets can only be prepaid by means of postage stamps, except at the General Post Office, Edinburgh, where inland letters, post cards, book packets, and parcels may, from 10 a.m. to 4 p.m., be prepaid in money, provided the amount be not less than £1, and that the letters and halfpenny packets be tied in separate bundles of 5s. each, with the addresses arranged in the same direction.

REGISTRATION (INLAND AND FOREIGN).

Letters, etc., must be prepaid as regards both postage and registration fee; except official letters for Government Offices in London, Dublin, or Edinburgh, which may be registered on prepayment, in stamps, of the registration fee only.

The fee chargeable for registration to places abroad is 2d.; and to some foreign countries a letter can be registered only to the port of arrival, it being left in those cases to the postal authorities of the country to which that port belongs to continue the registration or not as they may think proper. Coin, jewellery, or precious articles may not be sent through the post to certain countries of the Postal Union; no letters or packets addressed to those countries and containing such articles can be accepted for registration.

Every letter, etc., to be registered must be given to an officer of the Post Office, and a receipt obtained for it, and should on no account be dropped into the letter-box. If an article marked 'registered' be dropped into the letter-box, directed to any place in the United Kingdom, it will be liable to a registration fee of 4d. (less any amount prepaid for registration), instead of the ordinary fee, and if posted containing coin, watches, or jewellery without being registered, will be treated in like manner.

Registered letters require to be posted at General Post Office thirty minutes, and at the sub-offices fifteen minutes before the closing of the box for ordinary letters; but upon payment of a late fee of 4d. they may be registered at General Post Office until the closing of the letter-box for ordinary letters for each dispatch.

The registration of a packet makes its transmission much more secure, as it can be traced through its whole course; and thus the loss of a registered packet is a very rare occurrence. Nevertheless, large sums of money or other articles of great value should not be sent through the post, as the machinery of the department is not arranged with a view to such transmissions. If sent unregistered, valuable articles are exposed to risk.

INLAND REGISTRATION AND COMPENSATION.

The ordinary registration fee for each inland letter, parcel, or other postal packet is 2d., exclusive of postage. With a further 2d. the sender may obtain advice of delivery.

Inland packets marked 'Registered' or containing coin or jewellery, if found in a letter-box undergo compulsory registration (4d.), carrying no compensation.

Compensation for Loss or Damage.—These fees (which in each case include the ordinary registration fee of 2d.), and the respective limits of compensation, are as follows:—3d. on £20, 4d. on £40, and so on at the rate of 1d. for every additional £20, up to a limit of 1s. 10d. for £400.

RULES.

General Conditions.

No compensation either for loss or damage will be given in respect of a postal packet containing anything not legally transmissible by post; or a packet not posted in the manner prescribed.

Compensation given in respect of the loss or damage of coin shall not in the case of any letter exceed the sum of £5, and must be enclosed in one of the Registered Letter envelopes sold by the Post Office, and the packet is tendered for transmission by Registered Letter Post, and a certificate of posting, bearing an acknowledgment that the fee for registration and compensation has been paid, must be obtained.

No compensation will be given in respect of damage to a postal packet containing eggs, soft fruit, or any liquid or semi-liquid; or containing any article of an exceptionally fragile character, or any other article which from its nature cannot with reasonable safety be sent by post; or containing a perishable article where the damage arises from natural decay, and the postal packet is delivered without undue delay; or which is not marked 'Fragile, with Care.'

Where a postal packet (other than a parcel) is marked 'Fragile, with Care,' may be slightly delayed in transit, as it may be diverted from the quickest to some other route to ensure greater safety.

Definition of Terms.

The term 'postal packet' means and includes any letter packet, post card, halfpenny packet, book, newspaper, parcel, or other article transmissible by the Post in accordance with the regulations in force for the time being. The term 'money' means and includes coin and paper money. The term 'coin' means and includes coin of all kinds whether or not current in the United Kingdom or elsewhere. RE-DIRECTION.

Letters, halfpenny packets, post cards, and newspapers, are not liable to additional postage for re-direction, whether re-directed by an officer of the Post Office or by an agent of the addressee after delivery, provided that the letters are re-posted not later than the day (Sundays and public holidays not being counted) after delivery, and that they do not appear to have been opened, but if re-posted later than the day after delivery are charged at the prepaid rate. Any which appear to have been opened will be charged as unpaid letters or packets.

Parcels are, when re-directed, liable to additional postage at the prepaid rate for each re-direction. But re-directed parcels are not subjected to additional postage if the original and corrected addresses are both within a delivery from the same Post Office, and that the re-direction is made within the period of free re-direction allowed for other classes of correspondence.

A registered letter or packet, when re-directed, should be taken back to the Post Office to be dealt with as a registered letter. No additional registration fee will be charged if the correspondence is presented for re-registration not later than one day after delivery; but if it is presented after that time it will be treated as freshly posted; and a fresh registration fee will be payable.

Notices of removal and applications for re-direction of letters, etc., must in all cases be duly signed by the persons to whom the letters are addressed; printed forms of notice can be obtained at the local office and the General Post Office, or from the postman. A separate notice must be filled up for parcels and telegrams. Persons who are about to change their residence should inform their correspondents beforehand of their intention.

The Post Office does not undertake the re-direction of letters, etc., for a person temporarily leaving his home, unless the house be left uninhabited, or of letters, etc., addressed to club's hotels, boarding-houses, or lodgings; or addressed to any premises occupied by two or more persons where the letters are delivered by postman into a common letter box or to a common agent.

Foreign and Colonial.—The principle of free re-direction, which is adopted throughout the Postal Union for letters, post cards, commercial papers, printed papers, and sample packets, does not exempt from additional postage letters, etc., which, though fully prepaid for the first transmission, are re-directed to a country to which the postage is higher than that originally prepaid. Thus a letter or packet prepaid at the inland rate, sent from one place to another in the United Kingdom and afterwards re-directed to a place abroad, should have additional stamps affixed to it representing the difference between the inland and the foreign rate of postage. otherwise the difference will be charged on delivery. The same treatment would be adopted with a letter or packet fully prepaid for the inland service of a foreign country or colony and re-directed to the United Kingdom. Letters originally posted unpaid, and letters or packets posted insufficiently paid, and subsequently re-directed, though not chargeable for re-direction, are subject to the ordinary charge of double the deficient postage on delivery.

Registered letters on being re-directed may not be dropped into a letter box, but must be taken to a Post Office to be dealt with as registered. Parcels arriving in this country and re-directed from one address to another in the United Kingdom are liable to additional postage at the inland rate for each re-direction.

Letters for commissioned officers, non-commissioned officers, private soldiers, or seamen in the army or navy, on actual service, are exempt from any charge for re-direction, and also to the usual regulations as to time of re-posting. Letters, etc., returned to the senders that they may rectify or complete the address, are not, when re-posted, treated as re-directed, but as liable to fresh postage.

No person living within the town free delivery, unless he rent a private box, can obtain his letters at the General Post Office.

Private Boxes and Bags.—The fee for a private box is £3. 3s. per annum; and if for a private bag, £1. 1s. additional; and if for parcels, an additional fee; for delivery from one address to another (removal excepted), 21s.; and for private delivery of registered letters only, a fee of 10s. 6d. a year.

Inland Revenue Stamps.—Stamps issued solely for Inland Revenue purposes, whether impressed upon paper or parchment, or adhesive, can be obtained through all Money Order Offices in England and Wales, and through certain selected offices in Scotland and Ireland, and postmasters are instructed to keep a stock of those classes of stamps for which there is a demand. The same regulation applies also to the supply of Fee Stamps of every kind.

Embossed or impressed postage stamps cut out of envelopes, post cards, letter cards, newspaper wrappers, or telegram forms may be used as adhesive stamps in payment of postage, provided they are not imperfect, mutilated, or defaced in any way. Embossed or impressed Inland Revenue stamps cannot be used in payment of postage, and stamps indicating the payment of a registration fee may only be used for registered correspondence.

Stamps bought from the public—

Persons wishing to sell postage stamps must fill up a form, obtainable at any post office, stating the value of the stamps, and the name, address, and occupation of the vendor. The form and stamps should then be handed in at any Money Order Office and an acknowledgment obtained. An order for the face value of the stamps, less 5 per cent. commission, will be sent by post from the chief office of account, London, Dublin, or Edinburgh. No smaller amount than £1 worth will be purchased from one person.

Ordinary Postage and Revenue Stamps available for certain documents.—Ordinary adhesive Postage and Revenue Stamps may, as a rule, be used for the purpose of denoting Stamp Duties up to a limit of 2s. 6d., where adhesive stamps are admissible for that purpose.

One or more Postage and Revenue Stamps may be used to make up the duty.

Stamping of documents, &c.—On the prepayment of the proper duty, any executed or unexecuted documents or printed forms can be left at all Money Order Offices to be forwarded for stamping, without charge for transmission, provided that the value of the stamp on any document or form does not exceed the limit which may be in force at the Money Order Office concerned. Executed documents can, as a rule, be reclaimed the second day after being left.

POSTAL ORDERS.

Postal Orders are issued and paid at most post offices in the United Kingdom.

The following are the amounts for which Postal Orders are issued, together with the poundage payable in respect of each order:—

6d. up to 15s.	1d. each.
15s. 6d. ,, 21s.	1½d. each.

Broken amounts, whether the order is made payable in the United Kingdom or elsewhere (excepting Canada), may be made up by affixing postage stamps not exceeding 5d., and not exceeding three in number, to the face of the order.

The person to whom a Postal Order is issued must, before parting with it, fill in the name of the person to whom the amount is to be paid, and is recommended to fill in the name of the office of payment as a precaution in case the order should be lost or stolen. The person so named must, before payment can be made, sign the receipt at the foot of the order, and must also fill in the name of the Money Order Office, if that has not been already done.

Every person obtaining a Postal Order should tear off and retain the counterfoil. Its production will facilitate inquiry if the order should be lost.

If a Postal Order be crossed, payment will only be made through a banker, and if the name of a banker is added, payment will only be made through that banker.

Remittances to the Colonies, and to other places abroad, for sums exceeding £1, 1s. 0d., may be made by Money Order.

POST OFFICE SAVINGS BANKS.

Post Office Savings Banks are established at all Money Order Offices, and are open for bank business during the same hours as for money orders.

Deposits of one shilling upwards may be deposited, but fractions of a shilling may not form part of an ordinary deposit in a personal account. The deposits of Societies, Penny Banks, &c., are not subject to this limitation.

Every deposit must be entered at the time in the depositor's book by the person receiving it, who will also sign and date stamp the entry. A depositor should carefully examine his book before leaving the office, and see that the entry is correct.

In addition to the receipt in the book, the depositor will receive for every deposit of £5 or over, an acknowledgment by post from the Savings Bank Department, London. If the acknowledgment does not reach the depositor in proper time (four clear days), or if it show any signs of erasure, or does not agree with the entry in his book, the depositor should immediately apply to the Controller of the Savings Bank by letter, and should renew his application again and again until he obtains a satisfactory reply.

Interest at the rate of £2. 10s. per cent. per annum is allowed on every complete pound standing to the credit of a depositor. The calculation is made from the first day of the calendar month next following the day on which a complete pound shall have been deposited up to the last day of the calendar month preceding the day on which a warrant for repayment is issued.

Once in each year, on the anniversary of the day on which the first deposit was made, the depositor should forward the deposit book to the Controller of the Post Office Savings Bank Department in London, in order that it may be compared with the books of the department, and the interest to the previous 31st December may be inserted.

Every person opening an account should see that he obtains a Deposit Book. This book may be used to make deposits or withdrawals at any Post Office Saving Bank in the United Kingdom. Two patterns of deposit book are in use. If the amount of the opening deposit is 10s. or more, a book is issued in which deposits are recorded by means of written entries. If the amount of the opening deposit is less than 10s., a book is issued in which deposits are recorded by means of adhesive labels (called coupons) of the uniform value of one shilling. When the amount due in a coupon book reaches £1, the account is transferred to a book of the other pattern.

If a depositor loses his book, he should immediately give notice to the Controller, stating at what Post Office and about what date the account was opened, and, if possible, the number of the book; also the date and amount of the last withdrawal, and at what Post-Office it took place.

Postmasters and other officers of the Postmaster-General employed in the receipt or payment of deposits, are strictly forbidden to disclose the name of any depositor, or the amount deposited or withdrawn, except to the Postmaster-General, or to such of his officers as are appointed to assist in carrying out the provisions of the Post Office Savings Banks Act.

INVESTMENTS AND SALES OF GOVERNMENT STOCK.

A depositor in the Post Office Savings Bank who desires to invest in Government Stock must send to the Controller of the Savings Bank Department, General Post Office, London, an application signed by him on a form to be obtained at any Post Office Savings Bank. Such investments can be made in Two and a Half per cent. Consolidated Stock, Two and a Half per cent. Annuities, Two and Three Quarters per cent. Annuities (1905), Local Loans Three per cent. Stock, Guaranteed Two and Three Quarters per cent. Stock, and Guaranteed Three per cent. Stock. War Loan Three and a Half per cent. Stock, War Loan Four and a Half per cent. Stock, and War Loan Five per cent. Stock.

The commission chargeable on investment, including the receipt of dividends, and on the sale of Stock, is 9d. for the first £25, and 6d. for every additional £25, with a further charge of 6d. in respect of every £100, or part of £100, Stock above £200.

Particulars regarding Stock certificates may be learned at any Money Order Office.

GOVERNMENT INSURANCE AND ANNUITY.

Immediate Annuities of not less than £1, or more than £100, may be purchased through the Post Office Savings Bank on the life of any person over 5 years of age.

If the amount of the annuity purchased is less than £100, further annuities may be purchased from time to time until the total amount is £100. These annuities are payable by equal half-yearly instalments on the 5th January and 5th July, or on the 5th April and 10th October, according to the date of purchase.

Terms of Purchase.

The sums charged for the purchase of Immediate Annuities vary with the age (a certificate of birth or baptism is required as evidence of age) and sex of the person on whose life the Annuity is to depend.

Full tables of rates can be seen at any Post Office transacting Savings Bank business, and the cost of an Annuity in any particular instance and any other information can be obtained on application to the Controller of the Savings Bank.

Joint Annuities.

Any two persons may purchase an Immediate Annuity on their joint lives, with or without continuance of the annuity to the survivor. The cost of any Joint Annuity will be furnished on application being made to the Controller of the Savings Bank, giving the age and sex of each of the persons on whose life the Annuity is to depend.

Life Certificates.

Before any half-yearly instalment of an annuity can be paid, the person on whose life the annuity depends must be proved to be alive on the date the instalment becomes due. A form of life certificate for this purpose is provided by the department.

Forms of proposal for the insurance of lives and the purchase of annuities may be obtained at any Post Office Savings Bank.

INSURANCES.

Government Life Insurance for sums up to £100 on the lives of persons between 14 and 65 years of age are available through the agency of the Post Office. Children under 8 years of age are not insured, and insurance of those between 8 and 14 is limited to £5.

Insurance for a sum to be paid at death can be effected by a single payment, by annual payments ceasing at 60 years of age, or by annual payments throughout life.

Insurance for a sum to be paid on the attainment of the age of 55, 60, or 65 years, or sooner in the event of death, can be effected by a single payment or by annual payments to cease at the selected age.

Insurance for a sum to be paid at the expiration of 10, 15, 20, 25, 30, 35, or 40 years, or sooner in the event of death, by the payment of a single premium according to the age of the insured person.

Insurances for sums from £5 to £25 may be effected with or without a medical examination, but for insurance above that amount examination (which is free) is necessary.

But when it is not a Head Post Office, the message is delivered free within three miles only.

When the address is beyond the free delivery, portage is charged at the rate of 3d. per mile, or any part thereof, the charge being calculated from the limit of the free delivery.

The sender is responsible for the portage, and when the address is not within the free delivery, he must, if practicable, state the distance and pay the portage in advance. When the exact distance is not known, a deposit must be paid.

The cost of a reply to a telegram, not exceeding forty-eight words, may be prepaid; and a Reply Form will then be delivered to the addressee, who will be at liberty to send his reply, from any telegraph office, at any time within twelve months. If the Form be not used, it may within the same period be sent to the Secretary, G.P.O., and the value will be refunded to the sender. A Reply Form need not necessarily be used for a reply, but may be used to prepay any message.

G.P.O., EDINBURGH, ALWAYS OPEN.

FOREIGN TELEGRAMS.

Foreign telegrams are divided into two kinds—telegrams in plain language and telegrams in code language. Those in plain language must be written in self-explanatory English or French.

Telegrams written in one of the authorised codes (full particulars can be obtained at any Telegraph Office) may be forwarded to places in British and Allied territory outside Europe, and with certain exceptions to places in the territory of neutral States outside Europe.

Telegrams in private code or in any other unauthorised code cannot be accepted. In order to expedite the transmission of code telegrams, senders should deposit translations of the telegrams when they are handed in: and in all cases the name of the code used must be indicated by the sender on the telegram form. A special fee of 6d. will be charged for each telegram in code.

SPECIAL WEEK-END LETTER TELEGRAMS FROM AND TO HIS MAJESTY'S FORCES.

By this service, week-end letter telegrams from members of the Forces can be accepted at Telegraph Offices in the United Kingdom for transmission to most places in British territory or in British occupation outside of Europe and in the Mediterranean. Such telegrams will also be accepted from the general public to members of the Forces serving outside of Europe or in the Mediterranean. Such messages must bear the indication "E.F.M." before the address.

Telegrams of inquiry addressed to the proper Government Authority concerning the progress of persons who have been officially reported to be wounded, seriously wounded, or dangerously wounded (but not of persons who have been slightly wounded), or to be suffering from disease, may be sent free of charge, subject to certain conditions which may be ascertained at any Telegraph Office.

TELEGRAMS TO AND FROM SHIPS BY WIRELESS TELEGRAPHY.

Special regulations in force during the war.

Particulars of the service, together with information as to the charges, can be obtained at any Telegraph Office.

STAMP DUTIES.

The following is a list of Stamp Duties, according to the schedule of the Stamp Act, 1891 (54 and 55 Vict. c. 39), which came into operation on 1st January 1892, with the alterations by subsequent Acts. The duties imposed by prior Acts on Patent Medicines, Playing Cards, and certain Licences are also given.

Except where express provision is made to the contrary, all duties are to be denoted by impressed stamps only.—§ 2.

Stamps to be on the face of the instrument.—§ 3 (1). Every instrument on the same piece of paper to be separately stamped.—§ 3 (2).

Instruments relating to distinct matters to be stamped in respect of each.—§ 4 (a). An instrument liable to ad valorem duty, if made for any other valuable consideration, to be charged in respect of it also.—§ 4 (b).

Facts and circumstances affecting the liability of an instrument to duty to be fully and truly set forth. If not, fine on person who executes and on person concerned in the preparation, £10.—§ 5.

Every condition of sale framed to preclude objection or requisition upon ground of insufficiency of stamp upon instrument executed after 16th May 1888, and every arrangement for assuming liability on account of insufficiency of stamp or indemnifying against such liability or insufficiency, void.—§ 117.

Foreign currency, or stock or marketable security, ad valorem duty to be calculated on value in British currency at current rate of exchange, or average price of stock or marketable security at date of instrument.—§ 6.

An appropriated stamp (by word on the face of it) cannot be used for an instrument of another description.—§ 10 (1). An instrument to which a stamp is appropriated is not duly stamped except with the stamp appropriated to it.—§ 10 (2).

Duties apply to instruments executed in the United Kingdom, or relating, wheresoever executed, to property situated, or to any matter or thing done or to be done, in the United Kingdom.—§ 14 (4).

No instrument, except in criminal proceedings, shall be given in evidence, or be available for any purpose whatever, unless it is duly stamped in accordance with the law in force when executed.—§ 14 (4).

STAMP DUTIES MANAGEMENT ACT, 1891 (54 and 55 Vict. c. 38).

Procedure for obtaining Allowance.—§ 9. Subject to such regulations as the commissioners may think proper to make, and to the production of such evidence by statutory declaration or otherwise, as the commissioners may require, allowance is to be made by the commissioners for stamps spoiled in the cases hereinafter mentioned (that is to say)—

- (1.) The stamp on any material inadvertently and undesignedly spoiled, obliterated, or by any means rendered unfit for the purpose intended, before the material bears the signature of any person or any instrument written thereon is executed by any party;
- (2.) Any adhesive stamp which has been inadvertently and undesignedly spoiled or rendered unfit for use, and has not in the opinion of the commissioners been affixed to any material;
- (3.) Any adhesive stamp representing a fee capable of being collected by means of such stamp which has been affixed to material, provided that a certificate from the proper officer is produced to the effect that the stamp should be allowed;
- (4.) The stamp on any bill of exchange signed by or on behalf of the drawer which has not been accepted or made use of in any manner whatever or delivered out of his hands for any purpose other than by way of tender for acceptance;

- (6.) The stamp on any bill of exchange or promissory note which from any omission or error has been spoiled or rendered useless although the same, being a bill of exchange, may have been accepted or endorsed, or, being a promissory note, may have been delivered to the payee, provided that another completed and duly stamped bill of exchange or promissory note is produced identical in every particular, except in the correction of the error or omission, with the spoiled bill or note:

- (7.) The stamp used for any of the following instruments; that is to say—
 - (a.) An instrument executed by any party thereto, but afterwards found to be absolutely void from the beginning;
 - (b.) An instrument executed by any party thereto, but afterwards found unfit, by reason of any error or mistake therein, for the purpose originally intended;
 - (c.) An instrument executed by any party thereto which has not been made use of for any purpose whatever, and which, by reason of the inability or refusal of some necessary party to sign the same or to complete the transaction according to the instrument, is incomplete and insufficient for the purpose for which it was intended;
 - (d.) An instrument executed by any party thereto, which by reason of the refusal of any person to act under the same, or for want of enrolment or registration within the time required by law, fails of the intended purpose or becomes void;
 - (e.) An instrument executed by any party thereto which is inadvertently and undesignedly spoiled, and in lieu whereof another instrument made between the same parties and for the same purpose is executed and duly stamped, or which becomes useless in consequence of the transaction intended to be thereby effected being effected by some other instrument duly stamped:

Provided as follows:—

- (a.) That the application for relief is made within two years after the stamp has been spoiled or become useless, or in the case of an executed instrument after the date of the instrument, or, if it is not dated, within two years after the execution thereof by the person by whom it was first or alone executed, or within such further time as the commissioners may prescribe in the case of any instrument sent abroad for execution, or when from unavoidable circumstances any instrument for which another has been substituted cannot be produced within the said period;
- (b.) That in the case of an executed instrument no legal proceeding has been commenced in which the instrument could or would have been given or offered in evidence, and that the instrument is given up to be cancelled;
- (c.) That in the case of stamps used for medicines or playing cards, the medicines or cards bearing the stamps are produced to an officer and the stamps are removed therefrom in his presence.

Allowance for Misused Stamps.—§ 10. When any person has inadvertently used for an instrument liable to duty a stamp of greater value than was necessary, or has inadvertently used a stamp for an instrument not liable to any duty, the commissioners may, on application made within two years after the date of the instrument, or, if it is not dated, within two years after the execution thereof by the person by whom it was first or alone executed, and upon the instrument, if liable to duty, being stamped with the proper duty, cancel and allow as spoiled the stamp so misused.

Allowance, how to be made.—§ 11. In any case in which allowance is made for spoiled or misused stamps the commissioner may give in lieu thereof other stamps of the same denomination and value, or if required, and they think proper, stamps of any other denomination to the same amount in value, or in their discretion, the same value in money, deducting therefrom the discount allowed on the purchase of stamps of the like description.

Stamps not wanted may be repurchased by the Commissioners.—§ 12. When any person is possessed of a stamp which has not been spoiled or rendered unfit or useless for the purpose intended, but for which he has no immediate use, the commissioners may, if they think fit, repay to him the value of the stamp in money, deducting the proper discount, upon his delivering up the stamp to be cancelled, and proving to their satisfaction that it was purchased by him at the chief office or at one of the head offices, or from some person duly appointed to sell and distribute stamps, or duly licensed to deal in stamps, within the period of two years next preceding the application, and with a bonâ fide intention to use it.

ESTATE DUTY.

(INCLUDING THE FURTHER OR 'SETTLEMENT ESTATE DUTY' (57 and 58 Vict. c. 30, Part I).)

Estate duty is payable on the principal value of all property, heritable and moveable, and proceeds and investments thereof, settled and unsettled, which passes, or which is by Act to be deemed to pass on the death of a person dying after 1st August 1894, either immediately or after an interval, or at a period ascertainable by reference to death, either certainly or contingently, and either originally or by way of substitutive limitation.

Property Abroad.

Charge confined to moveable property, the owner of which dies domiciled in United Kingdom, or to property in which deceased was interested for life, and which was subject of a British trust.

Exemptions.

Estate duty not payable on the property of common seamen, marines, or soldiers, dying in His Majesty's service; nor

a. The Inland Revenue Office, No. 10 Waterloo Place, Edinburgh, is open for the allowance of spoiled stamps every day except Saturday, from 10 A.M. to 4 P.M. (Saturday, 10 to 12). The distributors and sub-distributors of stamps, and certain postmasters, also receive spoiled stamps for allowance.

A supply of forms of affidavit is kept at the Inland Revenue Office, and by the distributors, sub-distributors, and certain postmasters; and claimants may attend at the Inland Revenue Office, the office of a distributor, sub-distributor, or authorized postmaster and have the affidavits taken; or they may take the oath before a justice of the peace, and shortly afterwards lodge the affidavits and the stamps with any of the above officers. If not brought within ten days or a fortnight afterwards the stamp will not be allowed without a fresh affidavit. A ticket is issued stating when application is to be made for settlement. If application be not made within the stated time, the claim will be forfeited.

The stamps must be presented for allowance within two years after being signed or spoiled. In all cases the stamps must be delivered up to be cancelled.

On any pension or annuity by Indian Government to widow or child of a deceased officer of such Government.

Treasury may remit duty on art, or scientific collections appearing to them of national, scientific, or historic interest, given for national purposes, or to a university, or county council or municipal corporation.

Where husband or wife entitled, solely or jointly, to income of property settled by the other under a disposition taking effect before 2nd August 1894, and on his or her death survivor becomes entitled to the income of the property settled by such survivor, duty is not payable in respect of that property until the death of the survivor.

Estate duty is not payable on the deceased's death in respect of moveable property settled by a will or disposition made by a person dying before the 2nd August 1894, in respect of which property, inventory, or account duty has been paid, or is payable, unless in either case deceased, at the time of his death, or at any time since the will or disposition took effect, had been competent to dispose of the property.

Secs. 14 and 15 of the Finance Act, 1896 (59 and 60 Vict. c. 28), exempts from duty property simply reverting to a disponent after life interests created by him; also where a husband is entitled by law to the rents of his wife's real property, and he dies in her lifetime, such property is not to be deemed to pass on his death, by reason of the rents reverting to the wife.

Aggregation—Estate by Itself.

All property passing on a death to form one estate, on which duty to be levied at the proper graduated rate on principal value. Property to be aggregated, and duty thereon levied not more than once on the same death. Provided that property in which deceased never had an interest, or which, under a disposition not made by him, passes immediately on his death to some person other than wife, husband, lineal ancestor or lineal descendant of deceased, is to be an estate by itself, on which duty payable at proper graduated rate. But if any benefit under a disposition not made by deceased is reserved or given to wife, husband, lineal ancestor, or lineal descendant of deceased, such benefit to be aggregated for determining rate of duty.

Small estates not exceeding £1000 net.—Where net value of property, heritable and moveable, exclusive of property settled otherwise than by the will of the deceased, does not exceed £1000, such property is not to be aggregated with any other property, but is to form an estate by itself.

Settled Property—Settlement Estate Duty.

Where property liable to duty is settled by will of deceased, or having been settled by some other disposition, passes under it on death of deceased to some person not competent to dispose thereof, a further duty, called settlement estate duty, is payable on the principal value, except where the only life interest in such property after deceased's death is that of the husband or wife of deceased, or where the disposition took effect before 2nd August 1894. Property in which wife or husband of deceased takes an estate of terce or courtesy, or other like estate, is to be treated as property settled by will of deceased.

Provided—(a.) Estate duty and settlement estate duty are not payable twice under the same settlement, unless deceased at his death was, or at any time during continuance of settlement had been, competent to dispose of the property;

- (b.) Where the interest of any person under the settlement fails or determines by reason of his death before it becomes an interest in possession, and subsequent limitations under the settlement continue to subsist, the property is not deemed to pass on his death;
- (c.) Ad valorem stamp duty on settlement may be deducted from settlement estate duty;
- (d.) Settlement estate duty not payable where lands or chattels are so settled by Act of Parliament or royal grant that no one of persons entitled in succession can alienate the same;
- (e.) Settled property does not include property held under entail.

Persons Liable—How Payable.

Executor or Intromitter—Inventory.—Every person who, as executor, nearest of kin, creditor, or otherwise, intromits with or enters upon the possession or management of, any personal property wheresoever situate, of which deceased, at his death, was competent to dispose, is to pay the duty thereon, on exhibiting and recording in the proper Sheriff Court, within six months of the death, an inventory (or additional or corrective inventory) of deceased's estate, and may pay, in like manner, the duty on any other property passing on such death, which, by virtue of any testamentary disposition of the deceased, is under his control, or in the case of property not under his control, if the persons accountable for the duty thereon request him to make such payment. He may state on inventory that he does not know amount or value of certain property which passed on the death, and undertake, as soon as ascertained, to pay duty thereon, and any further duty payable by reason thereof on the other property in the inventory.

Other persons liable.—Where executor not liable for duty, every person to whom any property passes for any beneficial interest in possession, and also, to the extent of the property actually received or disposed of by him, every trustee, tutor, curator, judicial factor, or other person in whom any interest in the property, or the management thereof, is at any time vested, and every person, in whom the same is vested in possession by alienation or other derivative title, is liable therefor, excepting one who acts merely as agent for another in the management.

Value—Deductions—Repayment.

The principal value of property is the price which, in the opinion of the commissioners, it would fetch if sold in the open market at the time of deceased's death.

DEBTS AND FUNERAL EXPENSES.—Allowance against the gross principal value is made for reasonable funeral expenses, and for debts and incumbrances (including debts secured on heritage) incurred or created by the deceased bond fide for full consideration in money or money's worth, wholly for his own use or benefit, and taking effect out of his interest.

No allowance can be made for any debt in respect whereof there is a right to reimbursement from any other estate or person, unless such reimbursement cannot be obtained.

When Due—Additional Duty—Interest.

Due.—The duty which is to be collected on an inventory or account is due on the delivery thereof, or at the expiration of six months from the death, whichever first happens.

Income.—Every estate is to include all income accrued upon the property down to the date of deceased's death.

Additional duty.—Duty is, in the first instance, calculated at the appropriate rate according to the value of the estate, as set forth in inventory or account, but if afterwards it appears that for any reason too little duty has been paid, the additional duty is payable, and is treated as duty in arrear, unless a certificate of discharge delivered.

Heritable estate.—The duty upon an account of heritable property may, at the option of the person delivering the account, be paid by eight equal yearly instalments or sixteen half-yearly instalments, with interest at the rate of 3 per cent. from the date at which the first instalment is due, and the first instalment is to be due at the expiration of twelve months from the death, and the interest on the unpaid portion of the duty is to be added to each instalment and paid accordingly; but the duty for the time being unpaid, with such interest to the date of payment, may be paid at any time, and, in case the property is sold, is to be paid on completion of the sale, and if not so paid, is to be duty in arrear.

Annuity or definite annual sum terminable or perpetual may at option of person delivering account be payable by four annual instalments.

Interest.—Interest at the rate of 3 per cent. per annum is payable on estate duty from the date when the duty is due, or if the duty is payable by instalments from the date when the first instalment is due.

Small estates.—Interest is not charged on fixed duties of 30s. or 50s. if paid within twelve months of death.

Payment postponed.—Commissioners, when satisfied that duty on any property cannot, without excessive sacrifice, be raised at once, may postpone payment for such period, to such extent, and on payment of such interest, not exceeding 4 per cent. or any higher interest yielded by the property, and on such terms as they think fit.

Composition for 'Death Duties.'

Where from number of deaths on which property passed, or complicated interests of different persons therein, or other causes, it is difficult to ascertain amount of death duties (estate, inventory, temporary estate, legacy, and succession duties), or to do so without undue expense, commissioners on application, and all information being supplied, may assess such sum on the value of the property or interest as, in the circumstances, appears proper, and accept payment thereof in full discharge of all claims for death duties in respect of such property, and give a discharge accordingly. Discharge not to cover case of fraud or failure to disclose material facts.

Form of Inventory, etc.—Penalties.

Executor, or other accountable person, failing to render all appropriate accounts and statements, renders himself liable to a penalty of £100, or a sum equal to double the duty unpaid for which he is accountable, according as commissioners elect, with power to commissioners to reduce penalty.

Forms.—All inventories, accounts, certificates, statements, etc., to be in such form and contain such particulars as may be prescribed, and, if so required by commissioners, shall be in duplicate, and accounts and statements shall be delivered and verified on oath and by production of books. Any person wilfully failing to comply with this enactment to be liable to the penalty above.

Where the net value of the property, real and personal, on which duty payable on the death of deceased, exclusive of settled property, does not exceed £1000, and the fixed duty or ad valorem duty has been paid upon the principal value of that estate, the settlement estate duty and the legacy and succession duties are not payable under the will or intestacy of the deceased in respect of that estate.

Should the gross value have been wrongly stated as not over £300 or £500, as the case may be, the duty according to the correct value will be payable, and the 30s. or 50s. wrongly paid may be forfeited.

The following further provisions apply to inventories under (2):—

The executor nominated in the will, or other applicant for representation, may apply to the commissary-clerk or sheriff-clerk, who shall prepare and record inventory and expedite confirmation;—the will or other testamentary writing, where the deceased left such, being produced to the sheriff-clerk or commissary clerk.

The commissary-clerk or sheriff-clerk may require such proof as he may think sufficient to establish the identity of the executor or other applicant for representation; and if he has reason to believe that the value of the whole estate exceeds £500, he shall refuse to proceed until satisfied as to the real value.

Commissary or sheriff-clerk to affix seal of court to any representation granted in England or Ireland, on same being sent to him with fee of 2s. 6d. Seal of English or Irish Probate Court affixed to confirmation containing English or Irish estate on payment of 2s. 6d. fee.

Forms can be obtained at any Inland Revenue (Stamp) Office in the country, or at the Estate Duty Office, Edinburgh.

Delivery of accounts.—When the oath has been sworn, accounts in duplicate may be presented personally or by an agent at any of these offices for examination, and when passed the duty will be received and the account stamped.

To husband or wife, children or their descendants, or lineal ancestors,*	Duty per ct.

All other relations or strangers,	10 0 0

This duty is payable for every legacy out of the personal or moveable estate, or out of any personal estate the deceased has power to dispose of, and (in the case of a deceased dying before 1st July 1888) upon every legacy out of or charged upon the real or heritable estate of the deceased, or out of any moneys to arise by the sale, mortgage, or other disposition of the deceased's real or heritable estate, or any part thereof, or out of heritable estate, subject to his power of disposal: Also for the clear residue (after deducting debts, funeral expenses, legacies, and other charges first payable thereout) of the personal or moveable estate, whether the title to such residue shall accrue by virtue of any testamentary disposition, or upon a partial or total intestacy; and (in case of a deceased dying before 1st July 1888) for the clear residue of the moneys to arise from the sale, mortgage, or other disposition of any real or heritable estate, directed to be sold, mortgaged, or otherwise disposed of by any will or testamentary instrument. Such duties, in respect of real or heritable estate, to cease in the case of persons dying on or after the 1st July 1888, and in lieu thereof the duties payable under the Succession Duty Act, 1853, and the additional duty under the Act 51 Vict. c. 8. shall be payable (51 Vict. c. 8, § 21 (2).)

Annuities commencing to be payable on the death of persons dying after 19th May 1853 are valued for legacy duty according to tables annexed to the Succession Duty Act (16 and 17 Vict. c. 51); annuities commencing to be payable previous to that date, by the tables annexed to the Legacy Duty Act (36 Geo. III. c. 52).

* Note.—Duty not to be levied (a) where estate does not exceed £15,000; (b) where value of legacy does not exceed £1000; and (c) if to a widow or child under 21 where legacy does not exceed £2000.

Where the testator or intestate died before 1st June 1881, duty is not exigible on legacies or residues under £20; but if a legatee take two or more legacies under any testament, which shall together be of the amount of £20, each shall be charged with duty, though each or either may be separately under that amount. See 44 Vict. c. 12, § 42. Also, where the value of the whole of the personal estate of any person dying after 24th March 1880 does not amount to £100, no duty shall be chargeable in respect thereof, or of any portion thereof. (43 Vict. c. 14, § 13.)

The legacy duty presumptively payable upon an interest in expectancy may be commuted for a present payment. (43 Vict. c. 14, § 11.)

The Commissioners of Inland Revenue have power to accept a composition for legacy duty under a will. (44 Vict. c. 12, § 43.)

The duty commenced on the death of persons dying after the 19th May 1853, and seems to be imposed on all property, both heritable and moveable, passing by death, not liable to the duty on legacies and successions to personal estate upon intestacy—the duty imposed by the Legacy Duty Acts.

The duty on HERITABLE PROPERTY is charged on the capital value when the successor is competent to dispose (Finance Act, 1894, § 18), after allowance of the necessary outgoings, and in other cases as an annuity for the life of the successor (§ 21), which is to be valued by tables annexed to Act.

PERSONAL PROPERTY is liable to duty according to the value of the succession; and money charged on heritage—heritable securities—is charged as personalty (§ 1).

The Rates of Succession Duty are the same as on Legacy Duty.

The following are also exemptions from the succession duty:—

1. Succession from the same predecessor, passing on any death, not amounting in principal value to £100 (§ 18).
2. Legacies and personal property charged with legacy duty in respect of the same acquisition (ib.).

In the case of an assessment on lands (inclusive of the farmhouse and farm buildings), under Sched. A. the assessment is to be reduced by one-eighth part; and in the case of houses or buildings distinct from farms, the assessment is to be reduced by one-sixth part, except where the tenant has undertaken to bear the cost of repairs. (53 and 54 Vict. c. 8, § 23.)

§ 71. Finance (1909–10) Act, 1910. (1) No exemption, abatement, or relief under the Income Tax Acts which depend wholly or partially on the total income of an individual from all sources shall be given to any person, unless the person claiming the exemption, abatement, or relief is resident in the United Kingdom. Provided that any person who is or has been employed in the service of the Crown or who is employed in the service of any missionary society abroad or in the service of any of the native states under the protectorate of the British Crown, and any person resident in the Isle of Man or Channel Islands, and any person resident abroad who satisfies the Commissioners that he is so resident for the sake of health, shall be entitled to any relief, exemption, or abatement to which he would be entitled if he were resident in the United Kingdom, and if his total income from all sources were calculated as including any income in respect of which income tax may not be chargeable as well as income in respect of which income tax is chargeable. (2) Income tax shall not be payable in respect of the interest or dividends of any securities of foreign State or a British possession which are payable in the United Kingdom, where it is proved to the satisfaction of the Commissioners that the person owning the securities and entitled to the interest or dividends is not resident in the United Kingdom; but, save as provided by this or any other Act, no allowance shall be given or repayment made in respect of the income tax on the interest or dividends on the securities of any foreign State or any British possession which are payable in the United Kingdom. Relief from income tax under this subsection may be given by the Commissioners either by way of allowance or repayment on a claim being made to them for the purpose within six months of the end of the year for which the income tax is charged.

§ 7. Revenue Act, 1911. (1) Where a husband is required under subsection (2) of section 72 of the principal Act (Finance (1909–10) Act, 1910), to make a return of his total income from all sources for the purpose of supertax and part of that total income is the income of his wife, the Special Commissioners may, if for any reason they consider that they are unable to obtain a satisfactory return of the wife's income from the husband, require the wife, to make a return of her income, and in that case the wife shall be under the like obligation to make a return under the said section as if she were not married, and the husband shall be relieved from any obligation to make such a return as respects the income of the wife. (2) Where supertax is charged in a case where the wife has been required to make a return under the foregoing provision, such part of the total sum payable in respect of the supertax as bears the same proportion to that total sum as the wife's income bears to the total income in respect of which supertax is charged shall be assessed on and recoverable from the wife in lieu of the husband. (3) This section shall have effect with respect to the supertax charged for the year beginning the sixth day of April nineteen hundred and nine and for any subsequent year as if it had been contained in the principal Act, and the provisions of that Act with regard to the assessment and collection of supertax, and the penalties for failure to make a return, shall apply accordingly.

§ 9 of the Finance Act, 1914, contains certain provisions with respect to income tax of married persons.

Unearned Income (Graduated Relief).

Where the total income of any individual from all sources does not exceed £2000, such relief shall be given by way of repayment as will reduce the rate of tax on unearned income to—

3s. if total income does not exceed £500.

3s. 6d. if total income exceeds £500 and does not exceed £1000.

4s. if total income exceeds £1000 and does not exceed £1500.

4s. 6d. if total income exceeds £1500 and does not exceed £2000.

Earned Income.

Any individual whose total income from all sources does not exceed £2500 is assessable on his earned income at the rate of

2s. 3d. if total income does not exceed £500.

2s. 6d. if total income exceeds £500 and does not exceed £1000.

3s. if total income exceeds £1000 and does not exceed £1500.

3s. 8d. if total income exceeds £1500 and does not exceed £2000.

4s. 4d. if total income exceeds £2000 and does not exceed £2500.

Earned income is derived from active carrying on of trades, professions, and employments, and from certain pensions paid by an employer. Interest, dividends, rents, and such like are not earned income.

Employers are bound to give statements of all sums paid to employees.

Every person is liable to a penalty for failure to make a return of his income when required, whatever his income may be.

Appeals for repayment on account of diminished income are generally restricted to new business not over three years set up at beginning of the year of taxation, and to businesses ceased. In the latter case repayment for three years may be claimed if assessments exceeded total profits.

Allowances for wear and tear not made in one year may in certain cases be claimed in the following year.

A clergyman paying rent for his house may be allowed at most one-eighth of the rent for rooms used mainly and substantially for the purposes of his duty.

The time for penalties and increase of assessments is extended to three years.

A firm is assessable in one sum for all profits, but the allowances to an individual may be claimed by a partner for himself and allowed for him to the firm.

Quarterly Assessment.

Weekly wage earners are assessable to and chargeable with income tax in respect of their wages in each quarter of the year instead of in the whole year. Weekly wage earners are those persons who are employed by way of manual labour and who receive wages which are calculated by reference to the hour, day, week, or any period less than a month at whatever intervals the wages may be paid, or who receive wages however calculated which are paid daily, weekly, or at any less intervals than a month. This part, however, does not apply to persons employed as clerks, typists, draftsmen, or any other similar capacity.

SUPER TAX.

In addition to the income tax, there shall be charged, levied, and paid in respect of the income of any individual the total of which from all sources exceeds £3000 an additional duty of income tax (referred to as super tax) at the following rates:—

In respect of the first £2500 of the income. Nil.

In respect of excess over £2500—

For every £1 of first £500 of excess . 10d.

“ £1 of next £1000 . 1s. 2d.

“ £1 “ £1000 . 1s. 6d.

“ £1 “ £1000 . 1s. 10d.

“ £1 “ £1000 . 2s. 2d.

“ £1 “ £1000 . 2s. 6d.

“ £1 “ £1000 . 2s. 10d.

“ £1 “ £1000 . 3s. 2d.

For every £1 of remainder of excess. 3s. 6d.

Finance Act, 1912, § 6.—In the case of the death of a person liable to super tax during any year for which super tax is charged, a part only of the year's super tax shall be payable proportionate to the part of the year which has elapsed before the date of the death.

DEDUCTION OF INCOME TAX.

1. Dividends and interest from the public funds, foreign loans, foreign or colonial companies, interest of money borrowed on the security of rates, and official salaries and pensions, are subject to deduction of Income Tax at the rate in force at the date of payment.

2. Mortgage interest, feu-duties, and ground annuals are subject to deduction of Income Tax at the rate or rates in force during the period in which they have been accruing due.

Note—No. 2 forms a guide for the deduction of Income Tax from dividends or interest payable out of the profits or gains of public companies in the United Kingdom.

§ 34 of the Finance (No. 2) Act, 1915, provides that deductions in respect of income tax under Schedule A on lands and heritages in Scotland made from any rent, interest, or payment due for the period ending on the 15th day of May shall be made at the rate of the tax in force at the commencement of that period.

EXCESS PROFITS DUTY.

Excess Profits Duty under Part III. of the Finance (No. 2) Act, 1915, shall be charged, levied, and paid for any accounting period ending on or after the 1st July 1915, and before 1st August 1917, on the amount by which the profits arising from any trade or business exceeded by more than £200 the pre-war standard of profits as defined by the Act. The duty is of an amount equal to 60 per cent. of that excess.

The trades and businesses to which the Act applies are all trades or businesses (whether continuously carried on or not) of any description carried on in the United Kingdom, or owned or carried on in any other place by persons ordinarily resident in the United Kingdom, excepting—

- (a) Husbandry in the United Kingdom, and
- (b) Offices or employments, and

(c) Any profession the profits of which are dependent mainly on the personal qualifications of the person by whom the profession is carried on and in which no capital expenditure is required, or only capital expenditure of a comparatively small amount, but including the business of any person taking commissions in respect of any transactions or services rendered, and of any agent of any description (not being a commercial traveller or an agent whose remuneration consists wholly of a fixed and definite sum not depending on the amount of business done or any other contingency).

THE LAND TAXES.

Increment Duty.—A tax of 20 per cent. on any increase in the site value of land, to be exacted whenever the land is sold or let on lease for more than 14 years, and whenever it changes hands by death.

Undeveloped Land Duty.—An annual tax at the rate of $\frac{1}{4}$ d. for every 20s. on the site value of land which has not been 'developed' by being built upon or by being used bonâ fide for any business trade, or industry, other than agriculture.

Reversion Duty.—A special form of increment duty. It is a tax of 10 per cent. on the increased rental of land, to be exacted whenever a building lease runs out and a similar new lease is made.

Mineral Rights Duty.—An annual tax at the rate of 1s. in the 20s. charged on the rent paid to a landowner for the right to work minerals on his land.

Excess Mineral Rights Duty is also charged at the rate of 60 per cent.

LIQUOR LICENCES AND SPIRIT DUTY.

Full Licence.—Publicans who previously paid at rates varying from £4, 10s. to £60, will in future be charged at half their annual value, with a minimum tax, varying according to population.
 As a consequence, highly rented premises will pay much more than formerly.

Beerhouse Licence.—Raised from £3, 10s. to one-third of the annual value, with a minimum. As in the case of the full, or publican's licence, the highly rented houses will pay very much more.

Retailers' Off-Licences.—Duties vary according to annual value; but have been raised all round.
 For example, a licence to sell spirits in bottles, which formerly cost £3, 3s. in England, may now cost anything from £10 up to £50.

Manufacturers' Licences.—For the old fixed duties of £1 on brewers of beer and £10, 10s. on distillers of spirits have been substituted a graduated duty on the amount produced. In the case of a brewer's licence the present duty of £1 will cover an output of 100 barrels only, and 12s. additional will be charged for every 50 barrels, or fraction of 50 barrels above that amount. The new distillers' licence will be £10 for any quantity not exceeding 5000 proof gallons, with other £10 for every additional 25,000 or fraction of 25,000 proof gallons.

Rectifiers of Spirits' Licence.—Raised from £10,
 10s. to £15, 15s.

Makers' Licence for British Made Wines.—
 Raised from £1 to £5, 5s.

Wholesale Dealers' Licences.—Beer raised from £3, 6s. 1d. to £10, 10s.; spirits from £10, 10s. to £15, 15s. Dealers' licences formerly covered wholesale as well as retail business. In future wholesale dealers who wish to do a retail business will have to take out in addition an ordinary retailer's off-licence, subject, however, to a reduction of the scheduled rate.

Spirits Duty.—Raised from 11s. to 14s. 9d. per gallon and 16s. 3d. (under 2 years old).

Clubs.—A tax of 6d. on every £1 of liquor purchased for sale in the club.

MOTOR SPIRIT.

Finance Act, 1909-10, Sections 84 & 85.

§ 84.—(1) As from the thirtieth day of April nineteen hundred and one there shall be charged, levied, and paid on motor spirit imported into Great Britain or Ireland a duty of Customs at the rate of sixpence per gallon.

§ 85.—(1) Any person using motor spirit for purposes other than supplying motive power for motor cars shall be entitled, in accordance with the provisions of this section, to an allowance or repayment of the duty paid in respect of the motor spirit under this Act, and any person using motor spirit for any of the purposes mentioned in parts of the Fifth Schedule of this Act shall be entitled, in accordance with the provisions of this section, to an allowance or repayment of half the amount of the duty paid under this Act in respect of the spirit.

Finance Act, 1915, Section 15.

Licence at 6d. per gallon in certain cases issued by Board of Trade. (Petrol Control Committee, 19 Berkeley Street, London, W. 1.)

Fifth Schedule.Part I.—Rebate of Motor Spirit Duty.

Motor spirit used for the purpose of supplying motive power—

To a motor car which is constructed or adapted for use, and is used, solely for the conveyance of any goods or burden in the course of trade or husbandry, and whereon the Christian name and surname and place of abode or place of business of the person, or the name or style and principal or only place of business of the company or firm keeping the same, shall be legibly and visibly painted in letters of not less than one inch in length.

To a motor cab, motor omnibus, or other vehicle being a hackney carriage within the meaning of section four of the Customs and Inland Revenue Act, 1888, while it is standing or plying for hire.

To a motor car which is constructed or adapted for use or is used partly for the conveyance of any goods or burden in the course of trade or husbandry, and partly as a motor cab, motor omnibus, or other vehicle being a hackney carriage within the meaning of section four of the Customs and Inland Revenue Act, 1888, standing or plying for hire.

To a motor car kept by a duly qualified medical practitioner while it is being used by him for the purposes of his profession, and veterinary surgeons. (For fuller information see Finance Act, 1910.)

To a fire-engine or ambulance.

MOTOR CAR DUTIES.

(2) The unit of horse-power for the purpose of any rate of duty in the said Schedule shall be calculated in accordance with regulations made by the Treasury for the purpose, and section twenty-seven of the Revenue Act, 1869 (which relates to the prosecution of offences), shall, so far as relates to motor cars charged with duty under this section, be construed as if the horse-power of the car were substituted for the weight of the carriage.

(3) Nothing in this section shall be construed so as to increase or affect the duty now payable in respect of any motor cab, motor omnibus or other vehicle being a hackney carriage within the meaning of section four of the Customs and Inland Revenue Act, 1888, or to require a licence to be taken out for any motor car which is not a carriage within the meaning of that section.

(4) If a duly qualified medical practitioner proves to the satisfaction of the Commissioners or Council by whom the licence is granted that any motor car kept by him is kept for the purpose of his profession, he shall be entitled to an allowance in respect of the duty payable under this section on the licence for the car equal to half the amount of duty so payable.

(5) If any officer of the Army Motor Reserve produces to the Commissioners or Council by whom the licence is granted a certificate, granted in such manner and by such persons as the Army Council direct, that any motor car kept by him has been used for the purposes of the Army Motor Reserve under regulations made by the Army Council for at least six days in any year, he shall be entitled to an allowance in respect of the duty payable under this section on the car bearing the same proportion to the whole amount of duty as the number of days for which the car has been so used bears to a full year.

(6) No duty shall be payable under this section in respect of any motor fire-engine or ambulance.

(7) The Treasury may make regulations providing for the total or partial exemption, for a limited period, from the duty payable under this section of any motor cars brought into the United Kingdom by persons making only a temporary stay in the United Kingdom.

(98) The expression 'motor car' in this Part of this Act means any vehicle which is for the time being a light locomotive within the meaning of the Locomotives on Highways Act, 1896, as amended by any other Act, and includes a motor bicycle and a motor tricycle, but does not include a vehicle drawn by a motor car. (For fuller information see Finance Act, 1910.)

DEPOSITORS with this Company possess SECURITY of a high character. The Funds are lent over HERITABLE PROPERTIES WITHIN SCOTLAND. The Loans are, on the average, moderate in amount, and in very many cases are repayable by instalments, so that the margin of security is being steadily increased.

In addition to these Investments, the Company's UNCALLED CAPITAL, amounting to £170,000, furnishes a valuable Guarantee to Depositors; while the RESERVE FUND, amounting to £30,000, for the most part invested in BANK OF ENGLAND STOCK and GOVERNMENT LOAN STOCK, affords a still further substantial Security. There is also a Depreciation Fund of £7000.

The Rate of INTEREST allowed on Deposits varies from 2 to 5½ per cent., according to the term for which the money is lodged.

BORROWERS will find the Company's arrangements simple and equitable. Parties are assisted in the Purchase of HOUSES or SHOPS for their own occupation, for which purpose the Company's system of accepting repayment by instalments is specially commended to Householders. The Rates for Instalment Loans have recently been reduced.

Borrowers do not, in virtue of obtaining Loans, become Members of the Company, and they incur none of the responsibilities of Shareholders. No Commission or Fines charged.

Loans on Heritable Security and Building Advances are granted on moderate terms.

THE "LUDGATE" BINDER.

THE . . . "LUDGATE" LOOSE-LEAF BINDER

is unique in this respect, that it holds not only one sheet or several hundreds as may be required at any time, but holds them in perfect alignment. We have perfected an arrangement which absolutely assures this.

Thus the LUDGATE offers the elasticity and convenience of the "flexible" back binder with the solid rigidity of the "box-back" pattern—a combination of vital interest to all users of the Loose-Leaf System.

LAUNDRY.

HOUSE OF MERCY, ST. CATHARINE'S CONVENT,
4 LAURISTON GARDENS,
EDINBURGH.

---

SPECIAL ATTENTION.—The Sisters of Mercy who conduct this LAUNDRY—opened Thirty-six Years ago, and now enjoying extensive patronage from Families resident in Edinburgh, Schools, and Hotels—solicit further Orders. Terms moderate. Printed Price List to be obtained by application to the REVEREND MOTHER SUPERIOR at above address.

---

The Van collects and returns Washings in all parts of the City and Suburbs.

---

The House of Mercy has been established to board, lodge, and train as domestic servants, girls who have no home or proper protection. Numbers of girls are being lost daily for want of those safeguards which a respectable home ensures, and which are so necessary for a girl in a city like Edinburgh. Those only who visit the very poorest and lowest localities can know the terrible dangers and temptations by which such girls are surrounded. It is idle to deplore the number of those who fall, and who, besides losing their own souls, bring many others to ruin, if strenuous efforts are not at the same time made to avert this evil. The SISTERS, therefore, confidently appeal to the charitable for assistance in a work which, they venture to think, can have no small claim on their sympathy and support.

Annual Subscriptions, however small, and Donations of Money, Food, or Clothes, will be thankfully acknowledged by the Reverend Mother Superior, who will be happy to show Visitors over the Laundry on Thursdays and Fridays.
